

Reflections on the Alaska Native Experience

By Roy M. Huhndorf

Contains 21 selections from a series of articles that appeared in The Anchorage Times during the period of 1981 through 1984. Topics include self-reliance, education, Native corporations, health, subsistence, and more. Edited by Alexandra McClanahan. Published and funded by TCF. Paper: ISBN 0-938227-03-3. $7.95

Alaska Native Corporations: Sakuuktugut, "We are working incredibly hard"

By Alexandra McClanahan

Puts Alaska Native Corporations in the context of Alaska's history and economic and social issues. This book documents how Alaska Native people are writing an epic story of cultural and economic development focused on an intimate tie to the land. Published and funded by TCF. Paper: ISBN 0-938227-07-6. $24.95

Growing Up Native in Alaska

By Alexandra McClanahan

A collection of personal reflections by 27 Alaska Native young professional men and women. They reflect on what it means to be an Alaska Native and the impact of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act on their lives. Published by TCF, funded by contributions from CIRI, Alaska Federation of Natives, and TCF. Paper: ISBN 1-57833-114-5. $19.95

A Reference in Time, Alaska Native History Day by Day

By Alexandra McClanahan

A reference to support the history of Alaska Native people. With at least one event for every day of the year, this book highlights key events in the history of Alaska Natives. Published and funded by TCF. Paper: ISBN 0-938227-041. $19.95

ORDER FORMS

AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST OR GO TO:

WWW.THECIRIFOUNDATION.ORG

TCF accepts payment by check, credit card, or money order.

Make checks payable to The CIRI Foundation.

Return Policy: The CIRI Foundation does not offer refunds for any of their publications. Please read the publication descriptions and ask any questions prior to purchasing.

The CIRI Foundation

The mission of The CIRI Foundation is to promote individual self-development and economic self-sufficiency through education and to maintain pride in culture and heritage among Alaska Natives who are original enrollees of Cook Inlet region and their descendants.

3600 San Jeronimo Drive, Ste. 256
Anchorage, AK 99508-2870

Phone: 907-793-3575

Toll free : 1-800-764-3382

Fax: 907-793-3585

E-mail: tcf@thecirifoundation.org
www.thecirifoundation.org

THE CIRI FOUNDATION

2011 Publication List

[Price List]

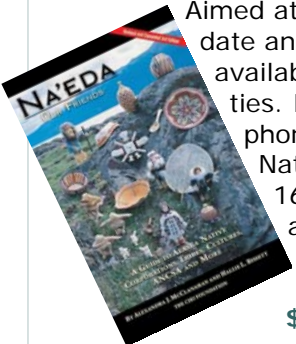

A Reference in Time, Alaska Native History Day by Day	$19.95
Dena'ina: Nat'uh Our Special Place	$15.95
Growing Up Native in Alaska	$19.95
Na'eda, Our Friends: A Guide to Alaska Native Corporations, Tribes, Cultures, ANCSA and more	$12.95
Our Stories, Our Lives	$15.95
Putting up Fish on the Kenai: A Guide to Processing Alaska Salmon in the Cook Inlet Tradition	$19.95
Reflections on the Alaska Native Experience	$7.95
Alaska Native Corporations: Sakuuktugut , "We are working incredibly hard"	$24.95
Alaska Scrapbook: Moments in History 1816-1998	$24.95
A Place for Winter, Paul Tiulana's Story	$17.95

A Place for Winter, Paul Tiulana's Story
By Vivian Sennetuk and Paul Tiulana
 The autobiography of Mr. Tiulana told against the backdrop of his early home on King Island. He describes his Inupiat culture as a hunter and fisherman and the traditions of his people. Published by The CIRI Foundation (TCF), funded by grants from Alascom, Inc., Alaska Humanities Forum, and TCF.
 Cloth: ISBN 0-938227-025. $17.95

Dena'ina: Nat'uh Our Special Place
By Alexandra McClanahan, Aaron Leggett and Lydia Hays
 The story about the indigenous people of Cook Inlet region. Including the early Kachemak Tradition people with primary focus on the Dena'ina Athabascan people. The story follows the historical/cultural timeline on display on the first floor of the Nat'uh Building. Published by Cook Inlet Tribal Council, Inc. Funding by TCF and Cook Inlet Tribal Council, Inc. Paper: ISBN 978-1-4243-2692-1. $15.95

Alaska Scrapbook: Moments in History 1816-1998
By Dr. Stephan Haycox and Alexandra McClanahan
 Alaska's unique and compelling recorded history is featured in 120 articles and photographs published in the Anchorage Daily News covering a span of key events and moments from 1816-1998. Paper: ISBN 0-938227-08-4. $24.95

Na'eda, Our Friends: A Guide to Alaska Native Corporations, Tribes, Cultures, ANCSA and more
By Alexandra McClanahan and Hallie Bissett
 Aimed at being the most up-to-date and comprehensive listing available of Alaska Native entities. Includes addresses and phone numbers for the 13 Native regional corporations, 168 village corporations, and more. Reprinted 2008. Published by TCF. ISBN 978-0-938227-09-0. $12.95

Our Stories, Our Lives
By Alexandra McClanahan
 A collection of personal experiences and traditional stories told by 23 Alaska Native elders of the Cook Inlet Region in Southcentral Alaska. These are first-hand accounts by elders who witnessed dramatic cultural changes in Alaska during the period of 1900-1985. Published by The CIRI Foundation, funded by grants from Alascom, Inc., Alaska Humanities Forum and TCF. Paper: ISBN 0-938227-01-7. $15.95

Putting up Fish on the Kenai: A Guide to Processing Alaska Salmon in the Cook Inlet Tradition
By Hazel Felton
 A "how to" manual for smoking and jarring one of Alaska's most prized resources. It's also a tribute to Rika F. Murphy, the first recognized chief of the Kenaitze Indian Tribe. Provides step-by-step processing instructions and includes design plans for the construction of an "urban smokehouse." Paper: ISBN 0-938227-06-8. $19.95

Contact The Tebughna Foundation regarding Tubughna, The Beach People 907.272.0707

Postage and Handling $4.95 per book
All prices and fees subject to change.

All proceeds from publication sales support the scholarship, grant, and cultural programs administered by The CIRI Foundation.

Thank you!